My dear Mr. Manley:

I have talked with our dietitian concerning the arrangement of meals for your players during your training period here. The best arrangement we can offer you is breakfast at 9:00 a. m., and dinner along with our students at 5:00 p. m. On Sunday, our schedule is: breakfast at 8:30 a. m., and dinner at 2:00 o' clock.

I trust that you will find this arrangement agreeable. At all events, please notify me of your disposition concerning these hours; and if you accept them, please let me know the day you will arrive.

Very truly yours,

E. B. Poole,
Business Manager
